MENU CERTIFICATION PROCESS TRAINING

This hands-on computer training will walk you through the steps required to receive the additional reimbursement ($0.06) for meeting the new USDA meal pattern requirements.

Use this information to help you make the most efficient use of your time at this workshop so you can easily complete the Certification Tool for a week of menus that you plan to serve in February 2013(or later).

Please bring the following information to the workshop:

1. A pencil.
2. A calculator.
3. A pad of paper to take notes at the workshop.
4. A week of Lunch menus you plan to serve in February or the month you want to apply for certification.
 - If you serve different menus for different schools (i.e. elementary, middle and high schools), bring a week of menus for each school.
5. A week of Breakfast menus you plan to serve in February or the month you want to apply for certification.
6. Portion sizes for all the menu items.
7. CN labels, USDA Food Fact Sheets, or Nutrition Facts/Ingredient Information from purchased (processed) menu items.
8. Calories and saturated fat for all items prepared from scratch if available. Otherwise, we will show you how to obtain this information during the workshop.
9. Standardized recipes used during the week of breakfast and lunch menus.

You are only required to use the new meal pattern for lunch this school year. Please review the attached lunch meal pattern <http://www.opi.mt.gov/pdf/SchoolFood/Forms/FS/NatLunchMealPattern.pdf>.

The same breakfast menu planning process that you used last school year can be used this school year.

For further information on the new meal pattern requirements and the certification process see the School Nutrition website http://www.opi.mt.gov/Programs/SchoolPrograms/School_Nutrition/.
